WATTON VILLAGE FETE

Saturday 4th September

2-4pm @ St Mary's

£4.00 entry includes Tea and Cream Scones

Children Free(bring your teddy)

Hello,
 September is here, the last month of Summer.
 Slowly the nights are drawing in and the leaves beginning to turn. However there's still time to get out and enjoy the wonders of creation.
 As one of my favourite hymns says:

*'O Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand has made.
 When through the woods & forest glades I wander and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
 When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur,
 and hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze.
 Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee; how great thou art, how great thou art.'*

So how did this wonderful hymn come to be written?

It was the inspiration of the Swedish poet, Carl Gustav Boberg, who was walking home from his church near Kronoback in Sweden after attending the afternoon service. Listen to how he describes his walk home.

*'It was that time of year when everything seemed to be in its richest colouring; the birds were singing in the trees and everywhere. It was very warm.
 Suddenly a thunderstorm appears on the horizon and soon there were loud claps of thunder and peals of lightning. Then came the rain.'*

We had to hurry to shelter. But the storm was soon over and a rainbow appeared; the sky cleared. When I came home I opened my window towards the sea, the bay of Monstera, it was shimmering like a mirror'.

All these sights, sounds and experiences inspired Carl, and he sat down and wrote the song that evening.

Doesn't the description that Carl Boberg gives remind us of the weather we have been having. The hot sunshine, and torrential rain. I wonder how many of us have been caught out by these showers?
 How quickly the weather changes.
 September too brings changes.

In our schools our youngsters are moving into new classes, with new things to learn; and for our little ones it's their first term, the start of their school life.
 For our young adults university and further education calls as they determine their future and place in the world. For others it's back to the place of work as the world begins to function in the 'new normality'. Or maybe it's a move to a new abode; or an addition to the family.

Whatever the changes, take time to go outside and take in the beauty of God's creation.

Take care, stay safe, and God bless,
 Love Trish

Prisoner Forty-Who?

Beneath the Heel Stone lay a dry wrinkly piece of bark also known as prisoner forty-two. The old man sat on the hard, damp dusty floor, quietly moaning to himself. This beyond ancient creature had fresh tears streaming down the thousands of tiny crevices that lined his face. BANG! A loud noise shattered the silence. "What have you done?" echoed a young voice around the corner. Just what the ancient man needed... A visitor.

A tall, silver haired girl appeared around the corner. Following behind was a ... well normal looking twelve year old boy with a hoodie and jeans. The twelve year old boy glared into prisoner forty-two's eyes. His small, black eyes suddenly turned to the silvered haired Virgo. Prisoner forty-two could barely even speak anymore. "C-C Can I h-h-h have s-some w-w-w-w water p-p please," uttered a calm voice. "Yes," replied Virgo. SSSLLUUrrppp. A loud noise echoed across the cave. The weak man spilt more water on the floor than into his mouth. "NOW! show us the way out" yelled Virgo a lot louder than anyone else. "Behind the boulder" whispered prisoner forty-two pointing over to an impossibly huge rock. Virgo sprinted over to the sparkly rock and used all of her strength to try and shift the rock. "I can't move it," she panted to try and catch her breath back. "There is no other way out, but you can free me," said prisoner forty-two trying to persuade Elliot and Virgo to free him.

"You don't look very strong," said Virgo aggressively. "Well, I am stronger than I look," he replied. "I have many powers," he laughed. "I can help mum," Elliot thought for a moment that was what he wanted the most. He drew his hand slowly towards the rusty silver chains. "NO! don't do it!" screamed Virgo. Elliot's mind did not listen to Virgo. There was a blinding FLASH.

Prisoner forty-two finally stood up he was alot taller than Elliot expected but he still grew taller, stronger and younger. The shredded black robe began to mend, a razor thin beard brought his chin to a piercing point. Young black hair slithered down his now long angular face. His deep, black eyes stared down into Elliot's as his head touched the ceiling, "THANK YOU

BOY!" thundered Thanatos sending dust down from the ceiling. "YOU CAN LEAVE NOW!" he said. "What about my mum," remembered Elliot. "What about your mum?" replied Thanatos. "You said you were going to free her," he declared. "I said I would free her but I did not promise

"NOW YOU CAN LEAVE." Shouted a powerful man with hair almost white from all the dust. Elliot agreed. On his way out he heard lots of noises that he did not want to think about. "DUCK," screamed Virgo. Elliot did so. He just dodged it. DING! Elliot had an idea. The ambrosia. "HEY BIG GUY OVER HERE!" he yelled. "MY AMBROSIA! How dare you." "I will only give it to you if you give me back Virgo." "FINE!" Thanatos yeeted Virgo across the cave and she landed softly on her feet. "Thank you," she said thankfully. Before Thanatos could take another shot on them Virgo transformed into her constellation and both went into a tight tunnel and disappeared.

Prisoner Forty-Who?

Beneath the Heel Stone of Stone Henge, was a dark metal twisted staircase that led down to a damp, wet cavern there lay the most dejected man (prisoner forty-two). BANG! A boisterous, roaring crash filled the cave. Yelling young children hissed at each other "What have you done?" This was the most exciting day of prisoner forty-two's life.

A flash of bright glow damaged the old man's eyes. Two young children fell into the pitch, black cavern. "Hello!" echoed the voice of two shivering children. The old ancient creature moved forward his plan was finally going into action. "Please!!" the frail skinny man begged for some fresh water. The young boy filled the rusty iron cup. "How do we get out?" asked the silver haired girl. "You will have to free me to get out," declared prisoner forty-two. "NO!" screamed the young girl. The man turned to the boy. "I will help your mum just let me free!" Elliot! You can't!" screamed the young girl. Elliot had no choice. "What's happening?" cried Elliot. Prisoner forty-two turned younger, stronger, taller and flung his head back with a victorious roar. Limp black hair slithered down his long angular face with a razor thin beard that brought his chin to a piercing point. The shredded black robe began to mend. "I am Thanatos!" roared the young man. "Y...you're a demon?" squealed the beautiful girl. Thanatos had thoughts and they were not good ones. "How could this be?" squeaked Elliot. "Elliot you can go now" answered Thanatos. "What are you doing with Virgo?" asked Elliot. "I'm going to enjoy not killing her" exclaimed Thanatos in delight. Elliot made it halfway out of the cavern while Thanatos was flinging Virgo by the hair. Elliot realised this wasn't right and grabbed the ambrosia and declared that him and Thanatos were going to trade. Elliot tipped the flask of wisdom and Thanatos dropped Virgo but trapped Elliot and Virgo. Virgo magically turned into her dreamy constellation and swiftly flew out of the cavern with Elliot on her back. Thanatos took a mighty step out of the cavern and slowly breathed in the crystal clear air.

HUTTON CRANSWICK

Hutton Cranswick Methodist Church

Minister : Richard Teal 01377 538806

Dear Friends

It is so good to join you in the village as the Methodist Minister. For the last 12 months I have been living on a large map as President of the Methodist Conference which in short means I have been the lead minister for the national Methodist Church for a year and because of COVID 19 it has meant that I have had to live that role in a very different but Pioneering way. I look forward to sharing some of that year with you as time goes on.

I also look forward to visiting the Methodist community in the village and getting to know many of you in the next few months. I believe the Church of Christ of whatever denomination needs to get back to the very basics of the faith, so my vision for the future will be to help and support the church in these ways:

Worship:

- To pray daily
- Worship with others regularly
- Listen for God in Scripture and the world

Learning and Caring:

- Care for ourselves and those around us
- Learn more about our faith
- Practise hospitality and generosity

Service:

- Help in our communities
- Care for creation and all God's gifts
- Challenge injustice

Evangelism:

- Speak of the love of God
- Live in a way that draws others to Jesus
- Share our faith with others

These are the themes which the Methodist Church is promoting, but they are themes that all Christians should be promoting and I look forward to sharing them and walking that journey with you.

Richard

Have you heard of Jacob's Well Appeal?

Do you know of its humanitarian work?

Of how it enables the establishment of locally managed projects in the fields of agriculture, literacy, and healthcare, plus the training and resources required to run them in countries that have never had the advantages we enjoy in the UK?

Help, which is being given so that people in need have the means and hope not just for the present, but also for the future.

A seed bank in Ghana, X-ray equipment (and a Morgue) for Burkina Faso, a disability centre in Madagascar, a minibus for Sierra Leone, fridges for safely storing vaccines, well-drilling equipment – the amount of aid being supplied in terms of money, equipment, initial training and ongoing support is staggering. And your generous involvement each year in the Shoebox Appeal is part of all this!

Not to mention the container lorries crammed with supplies of all kinds, taken by Jacob's Well across the world on a regular basis: so that despite complications, five containers have gone out from Beverley since January 2021, carrying hospital beds and mattresses, disposable products and dressings. Getting these containers to their destinations with cargo intact is fraught with difficulty! Intrigued?

Come to the

"Harvest Thanksgiving"

at HUTTON CRANSWICK METHODIST CHURCH on SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 19TH at 10:30 a.m.

at which Jacob's Well directors,
Dr Alistair and Dr Margaret Robertson, will be the speakers.

P.S. Help has also been given at home. During these "unprecedented" days of Coronavirus, Jacob's Well has received and distributed 110,000 face masks and 70,000 face masks and associated products, taking them to 32 local care homes. You can imagine how they were received!

Hutton Cranswick Parish Council
Minutes of the Meeting of the Parish Council, held on the 28th July, 2021.
The meeting was held at the WI Hall, Main Street, Cranswick and commenced at 7.00 pm.

Present: Councillors: Alderton, Kelly, Poolford, Richardson (in the Chair), Sibley-Calder, Mrs Simpson, Swan, Teare, Wilson. Five residents attended. The Clerk recorded the minutes.

21/175 Apologies: Councillors: Holtby, Lock, Thompson, Wilkinson. Ward Councillors: Evison and Owen.

21/176 Declaration of Pecuniary and Non-Pecuniary Interests –

Cllr Poolford Item No 12 Minute 21/185 - Pecuniary – Allotment Tenant.

Cllr Mrs Simpson Item No 15 Minute 21/188(b) - Non-pecuniary – HCSRA Committee Member.

21/177 Minutes – Resolved – That the minutes of the meeting of the Council held on the 23rd June, 2021 be approved and signed as a correct record (proposed Cllr Swan/seconded Cllr Poolford).

21/178 Budget – The latest payments, receipts, budget/cash flow forecasts and bank reconciliation were noted.

21/179 East Riding Local Plan 2020 to 2039 – The Local Plan sets out planning policies and is key in determining planning applications and developments in the East Riding. The current Plan was adopted in 2016 for the period 2012 to 2029. The Plan is reviewed and updated by East Riding of Yorkshire Council (ERYC) every five years. On the 28th May, 2021, East Riding of Yorkshire Council (ERYC) published the latest update giving 10 weeks, to 6th August, 2021, for people to submit comments. ERYC held public consultation meetings at several venues. The Parish Council hosted two public meetings, this was to help inform the Parish Council's response to the Plan and importantly, to encourage local residents to respond to the proposals for Hutton Cranswick.

The updated Plan proposed a housing requirement for Hutton Cranswick over the period 2020 to 2039 of 165. There were five sites allocated for the 165 houses, all were in Cranswick. Four of the sites proposed were existing sites in the 2016 Plan. One new site, CRA-F Land South of Hobman Lane (4.61ha - capacity for 124 houses) was proposed to replace an existing site, now deemed as undeliverable, CRA-C Land South of Oaklands (2.61ha - capacity for 67 houses).

In concluding its response to the proposal to the updated Plan, the Council took note of comments made at the recent public consultation meetings and letters received from residents. Cllr Teare offered to draft the Council's response to the updated Plan. The final response was to be submitted, by e-mail, by the 6th August, 2021. If any further decision had to be made, the Clerk would use his delegation as necessary. It was Resolved to accept the approach suggested (proposed Cllr Teare/seconded Cllr Wilson).

In summary, the Council's response covered the following matters: -

- (a) Correction of the inaccurate, out of date, description of the village,

Have you ever thought about joining the WI?

Hutton Cranswick WI is a small group of women (ladies?) mostly elderly but with a few young members. Joining the WI is a great way to meet new people, from the village and the wider East Riding. We meet once a month in our own WI hall, usually with a speaker or demonstrator, ending with tea and cake and a good chat.

But there is so much more to the WI than just the monthly meetings.

For me personally, over the years I have taken part in many different activities, eg. Archery, golf, gliding, rifle shooting, tried several different crafts such as watercolour painting, beadwork, paper crafts.

I've visited various stately homes and gardens, gone rambling, taken part in quizzes and even tried belly dancing. The list is too long to include everything.

We meet every 2nd Tuesday of the month at 7-15pm in the WI Hall on Main Street.

Do come and join us!

The Scouts recently joined in a stone stacking competition at Bridlington with other scouts from across the area. The idea is to use the flat chalk stones to make the tallest tower or a model. Of course Cranswick won!

The first of August saw a double reason to celebrate with it being both Yorkshire day and Scouting's 114th birthday. To mark the day we set up a mock up of a camp from days gone by. It was great to welcome scouters past, present and future, as well as other interested viewers to our exhibition camp. We had an altar fire and stoves for a little bit of cooking, home whittled tent pegs to decorate, camp gadgets such as chairs and wash stand made from wood and the old heavy green canvass patrol tents everyone remembers. I feel a special mention should go to the roll up table Emma made with lots of sticks knotted together expertly. The younger children liked the idea of using it as a roll up bed, but I'm not sure you'd feel rested after a night on it!

We're looking forward to getting back to meetings a bit more normally as we approach September and the new term. If anyone would like to join us from age 6 up to 106 get in touch. I'm joking about the age limit - we have no upper age limit!

The Queen's Platinum Jubilee Weekend 2022

In 2022, Her Majesty The Queen will become the first British Monarch to celebrate a Platinum Jubilee, seventy years of service, having acceded to the throne on 6th February 1952 when Her Majesty was 25 years old.

An extended bank holiday, from Thursday 2nd to Sunday 5th June, will provide an opportunity for communities and people throughout the United Kingdom to come together to celebrate the historic milestone.

Thursday 2nd June

The Queen's Birthday Parade (Trooping the Colour): Over 1,400 parading soldiers, 200 horses and 400 musicians will come together in the traditional Parade to mark The Queen's official birthday, usually held on the second Saturday in June.

Platinum Jubilee Beacons: The United Kingdom's long tradition of celebrating Royal Jubilees, Weddings and Coronations with the lighting of beacons will be continued to mark the Platinum Jubilee.

Friday 3rd June

Service of Thanksgiving: A Service of Thanksgiving for The Queen's reign will be held at St Paul's Cathedral.

Saturday 4th June

The Derby at Epsom Downs: Her Majesty The Queen, accompanied by Members of the Royal Family, will attend the Derby at Epsom Downs.

Platinum Party at the Palace: The BBC will stage and broadcast a special live concert from Buckingham Palace.

Sunday 5th June

The Big Jubilee Lunch: Every year since the idea began in 2009 The Big Lunch has encouraged communities to celebrate their connections and get to know each other a little bit better, coming together in a spirit of fun and friendship. In 2022 The Big Lunch will bring the Jubilee celebrations into the heart of every community. People are invited to share friendship, food and fun with neighbours as part of the Platinum Jubilee celebrations. A Big Jubilee Lunch can be big or small - street party or picnic, tea and cake or a garden barbeque.

The Platinum Jubilee Pageant: A pageant featuring over 5,000 people from across the United Kingdom and the Commonwealth will take place against the backdrop of Buckingham Palace and the surrounding streets.

Now what can we do to celebrate in Hutton Cranswick?

Join the Bulletin team at a Tuesday Coffee morning at the Bowls Club and share your ideas.
