THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND

on:-

Thurs 2nd June - Sat 4th June: 10am - 4pm

Sun 5th June: 1pm - 4pm

Everyone welcome

St Peter's Church, Hutton Cranswick

A display to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee will be held on 2-5 June.

If you have any royal memorabilia which you would like to contribute to the display, please have a word with Myrtle (271287) or Shirley (270356).

The church will be open to receive items for display on 30 & 31 May and 1 June from 10:30am-3:00pm.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Enjoy the celebrations...

At the recent FA Cup Final, down at Wembley, there was booing during the National Anthem, and during the singing of "Abide with Me."

Before I go on, it's worth remembering that not all of the fans present engaged in this activity, the booing came mainly from the Liverpool fans, and I'm sure that not all of them joined in...!

But let me ask you a question: what do you think you would have done if you'd been at Wembley and someone sitting next to you had started booing...?

I think it's likely that very few of us would have the courage to say "Stop...!", even if we felt strongly about it. It takes courage to challenge others about their behaviour, especially if we're in a minority.

The first weekend in June is going to be a time of national rejoicing and celebration for most of us. Queen Elizabeth II is going to mark 70 years since she acceded to the throne, on the death of her beloved father, King George VI.

But not everyone is a royalist, or a monarchist, and to some people the Queen's Platinum Jubilee Weekend will just offer a couple of extra days off work, and maybe the chance to go away for a long weekend and see family.

I think that's fine. Thankfully (unlike millions across the globe), we don't live in a dictatorship, where you're all forced to think the same or do the same.

All over the country Church bells will ring to commemorate the Jubilee weekend. In our Village this will happen at St Peter's, Hutton on Saturday 4 June. Ringing will start at 19:52 until 20:22 in the evening. (Note the significance of the times). Come along & listen.

The Queen has said publicly on many occasions that one of the things which has kept her going through the ups and downs of life has been her Christian faith. At the heart of that faith is Jesus' invitation to his disciples to "Follow me...!" (See Matthew 4:18-22 in the Bible for an example of this invitation.)

Jesus made his invitation knowing that some would accept it and some would reject it. Some people probably said "No" at first and later thought again and said, "Yes", and that's fine, too.

The invitation to follow Jesus goes out afresh in each generation. The Queen said "Yes" seventy or more years ago. What will you say today to the same invitation, in 2022...?

Whatever you do say, here's hoping you enjoy the celebrations...

Simon Elliott (Vicar of St. Peter's)

FILM REVIEW

This is a review for the 1985 Universal Pictures Back to the Future, a sci-fi adventure comedy film. Directed by Robert Zemeckis, produced by Bob Gale & Neil Canton. Written by Zemeckis and Gale. The film is a PG, 1h 56m long and the sound mix is surround. It is rated 96% from Rotten Tomatoes, 5/5 Empire Online and 8.5/10 IMDb.

Although the movie was released 22 years before I was born, this film is a must see for all teenagers.

The plot consists of time travel, high school, and a DeLorean car as a time machine. Teenager Marty McFly from the 1980s gets thrown back 30 years. When an experiment with Doc Brown goes wrong, Marty is sent to the 50s in a DeLorean. During his misadventure he finds his young parents in high school and a bully who threatens to keep them apart; if that happens Marty will cease to exist as his parents wouldn't be together.

There are several themes running in the movie that all do seem to get 'tied up nicely' by the end. The unlikely friendship between Marty and Doc holds some rather comical moments. Mix this with the protagonist becoming friends with his not yet parents and trying to set them up, it really is a great story. Seeing the various family members in the different timelines adds depth to the characters which is sometimes lacking in other movies of the 80's era. The comedy is shown right through BTTF with Marty's interactions with the various individuals including a cringe worthy crush (I'll not spoil it for you!). Yes, there is romance but don't panic, there's only a little.

Some trivia for you all: When the movie went into production, originally it wasn't Michael J Fox cast as the main character. Eric Stoltz played Marty but it was soon discovered that this wasn't the right fit, even though they'd been shooting the film for over a month (there are rumours that it was a lot longer than that)... I wonder what the film would have been like if they hadn't changed the cast.

Special FX is pretty good to say the year it was made. It's obviously not as realistic as what we see today, but it stands the test of time. Musical effects work seamlessly throughout the movie. The soundtrack works well and the film score is really quite iconic. Not bad going, considering that Zemeckis only gave the direction of 'it's got to be big' to composer Alan Silvestri. Some have said that the big, orchestral sound is a juxtaposition to the small town of Hill Valley. It does echo the hero theme that can be for both Doc and Marty.

BTTF surely is now considered a classic (certainly by my parents) and if you enjoy this film you'll be pleased to read that there are two more in this franchise.

Writing Chapter 14 for the Book Danny the Champion of the World

Anxiously, we strolled into the woods with Dad chatting away which put me at ease. When we were talking, we started to talk about the sleeping beauty and if it would work. Dad would be happy but in my head it was wrong to embarrass Mr Hazzell's so I was trying to persuade Dad to re-think this idea.

When we got to the wood, the ground was very boggy so it was hard to keep silent. After that we scattered raisin after raisin. We put all of the raisins down. We crouch in a bush, we were making lots of noise. We got so nervous that we were making such a racket we almost got caught but the keeper went passed us. As the keeper went passed us we were anxious and sick. After we hid in a bush we heard growling noises. We looked behind us and we saw two staring eyes pointing at us, we had two raisins to put the dogs to sleep. Eventually the dogs were asleep we started to get the pheasants one after one. The pheasants were dropping like flies. Dad got the pheasants up, we heard a voice... It was Mr Victor Hazzell so we hid in a bush. Unfortunately he saw us he said "William is that you?" my Dad stayed quiet and then Mr Victor Hazzell said I'm seeing things how could that brat get here in my wood? He doesn't even have a car!" Thankfully he left. We got up but Mr Victor Hazzell saw us dashing away "I'm going to get you William" yelled Mr Victor Hazzell. We got home without getting caught. My heart was still beating like a train because if Mr Victor Hazzell came here we would be in for it...

By Kane in Year 5

Optimistically, me and dad set off on foot to Hazzell's Wood. Smiling down at me, dad said how much I remind him of my mum. Staying quiet, I looked up at dad who looked confident but I was anxious and worrying about what might happen if we got caught. What if dad gets caught and tells me to go? What will I do? What if I get caught and dad doesn't realise? My heart would drop with a thud.

When me and dad arrived at the woods it was too early so we had to wait in the hedge. When it became night fall we trapsed deeper into the woods.

Towering shadows started to grow. The twisted vines swung off the trees. "Here is the heart of the woods" dad said cheerfully it was gorgeous the pheasants were the only things that were coloured other than black. At once we sprinkled the plump raisins carefully to make sure each and every pheasant gobbled one up. But something was wrong! It wasn't putting them to sleep, dad had done his maths wrong! That couldn't be, he always got it right. He once outsmarted my teacher. My dad was the most knowledgeable person I know. Thankfully the vibrant pheasants were starting to get peckish and give a minor injury. But dad's peck in the ankle didn't look so minor. His eyes filled with tears, but they didn't slide down his face. He had told me that he has never cried in his whole life. Then there was a gunshot sound behind us. I was so scared that I almost fell to the ground. "Let's do this." A woman's voice came out. It was the woman who showed up at the filling station. What was she doing here? Intriguingly, the woman said that she was a poacher as well. She had the same plan as me and dad but just a different method. The woman explained that the horrible, no good for nothing Mr Victor Hazzell had tried to steal her land.

Hutton Cranswick Methodist Church

Minister : Richard Teal 01377 538806

When I was President of the Methodist Conference last year, I was unable to physically travel very much due to Covid 19. The role of the President in part is to travel round parts of the world and the British Isles. I did it sat in my office in Driffield having a much larger reach than any other President before, but it was only on Zoom, not in person. We did the very best we could during that very difficult year for everyone-but I felt cheated.

So, you can imagine my absolute delight when I was privileged to receive an invitation from Buckingham Palace to represent the national Methodist Church on Friday 3rd June 2022 at the national service of Thanksgiving to be held in St Paul's Cathedral for the Queens Platinum Jubilee. You may even see me on the Television!!

But what are we celebrating as a nation at this time, through so many community events and acts of Worship?

We have been blessed beyond measure by having Queen Elizabeth on the throne for so many years. She has revealed what duty means over this long period of time and is as committed today at her wonderful age as ever she was.

The years of her reign have not been easy and straight forward but no one can fault her unwavering sense of duty. We can rightly be thankful for the stability which Queen Elizabeth II has given to our nation's affairs through the dignity and grace which she has continued to fulfil her high and difficult office during these many years. We remember at this time a very simple statement of commitment made by a very young woman, away from home, suddenly and devastatingly bereaved, a statement that she would be there for those she governed, that she was dedicating herself to them. The Queen has been dutiful because of her dedication to the Nation and Commonwealth. This has been revealed in all her public engagements, where she has shown a quality of joy in the happiness of others; she has responded with generosity in showing honour to countless communities and individuals of every background and class and race. She has made her people happy and all signs are that she is herself happy, fulfilled and at home in these encounters.

Rowan Williams says somewhere 'perhaps this is the challenge of the Platinum Jubilee that we should be so overwhelmed by the promise of a shared joy far greater than narrow individual fulfilment, that we find the strength to take risks and make the sacrifices'. There is something transforming and exhilarating about the prospect of a whole community rejoicing together – being glad of each other's happiness and safety. It is within this attitude that we are saved from the traps of ludicrous financial greed, of environmental recklessness, of collective fears of strangers and collective contempt for the unsuccessful and marginal – and many more things that we see far too much of, around us and within us.

But we are marking at this time the anniversary of one historic and very public act of duty and dedication that has endured faithfully, calmly and generously through most of our lives. We are making that living proof that public service is possible and that it is a place where true happiness can be found. Jesus himself says 'My food is to do the will of him who sent me', and that is what is at the heart of real dedication and duty.

Revd Dr Richard J Teal

22/080 Internal Auditor – Alan Johnson had notified the Council of his retirement. The Council considered a proposal from a local auditor, Public Sector Audit (Richard Dixon). ## 22/083 Representatives reports

(a) In Bloom – A Committee meeting was held on 22nd April, 2022 in the SRA Clubhouse.

Both a plant sale held at the Bowls Club, coffee morning and doorstep sales of plants had proved successful. The annual insurance premium had been paid. Funds had allowed the purchase of five oak whisky half barrels to replace the wooden planters at the W.I. Hall, with two bought by the W.I. The area around the W.I. Hall would be revamped by mid-May. Planting of containers at Laburnum Avenue/Beech View, Southlands and various areas at the SRA had been reviewed, resulting in an agreed programme of planned improvements.

On the 27th May, 2022, there was to be a tea party for school children at Foreman's garage. It was planned for Councillors to present the children with the mugs at the party. ### Jerusalem

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the Countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among these dark satanic mills?
Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear: O clouds unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant land

Land Of Hope & Glory

Land of hope and glory
Mother of the free
How shall we extol thee
Who are born of thee
Wider still and wider
Shall thy bounds be set
God who made thee mighty
Make thee mightier yet
God who made thee mighty
Make thee mightier yet

Land of hope and glory
Mother of the free
How shall we extol thee
Who are born of thee
Wider still and wider
Shall thy bounds be set
God who made thee mighty
Make thee mightier yet
God who made thee mighty
Make thee mightier yet

God Save Our Queen

God save our gracious Queen!
Long live our noble Queen!
God save the Queen!
Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the Queen

22/090 Cluster Meeting for Parish Councils in the East Wolds and Coastal Ward – Ward Councillors had requested for topics to be considered at the Cluster meeting. It was agreed to put forward two questions (a)

as there was considerable financial pressure on the East Riding of Yorkshire Council’s Highways budget, what impact would this result in for road improvement/repairs for the village? and (b) in early 2021, Ward Councillors expressed serious reservations as to the benefits of entering into a Devolution Deal with Hull, currently there is strong support for such a Deal. What has changed to now support the Deal?

22/091 20 mph signs – East Riding of Yorkshire Council’s Highways had confirmed the 20mph signs would be refurbished this year. It was noted that the Department for Transport manual stated that 20mph repeater signs were not necessary within a 20mph zone.

It was Resolved to accept East Riding of Yorkshire Council’s Pest Control quotation of £216.48 for a pest control service for a minimum of six visits to cover the period October, 2022 to March, 2023.

22/094 Play Area – The Council’s aim to remove high and medium risks had been achieved as the annual inspection of the play park identified only a number of minor repairs classed as low or very low risk. Appropriate action was to be taken. The aero speed zip line had been repaired.

Judging in July

The Hutton Cranswick Village in Bloom team is working hard on the planting and maintenance of containers and garden beds in the village. The emphasis in May has been on maintaining the containers, particularly the wooden ones, which need painting and mending every few years. The small wooden containers at the Methodist Church and the larger ones on the opposite side of the road were found to be rotting and unstable and have, therefore, been removed and recycled. The containers at the Methodist Church will not be replaced by In Bloom as the church has its own plans for the area.

The wooden planters along the wall opposite the Methodist Church have been replaced by five oak whisky half barrels. They have been planted with perennials for all round interest. Red, white and blue annuals will complete the planting for this season to celebrate the Platinum Jubilee. Other areas for the red/white and blue treatment are the SRA and the Station.

Also, the smaller planters along the decking area at SRA have been removed owing to difficulty in keeping these adequately watered. The remaining large planters outside the Clubhouse will be re-planted shortly.

The Plant Sale which took place at the Bowls Club Coffee Morning on 12th April raised a total of £72.50. Thanks to all who either came to buy plants or who donated them. As yet no definite date has been set for the Yorkshire in Bloom 2022 Judging which will be between 2nd and 17th July.

The next Village in Bloom meeting has been scheduled for 2.00 p.m. on Friday 10th June in the SRA Clubhouse.

Groupies for the Community Choir!

I am sure you are all aware that the village is putting together quite a programme of activities for the forthcoming Queen's Platinum Jubilee Celebrations. As part of the 'entertainment', we, The Yorkshire Wolds Community Choir based here at the SRA, will be performing a couple of little slots during the evening. This will be only our second public performance since we got back together after the lockdown restrictions.

Much has changed since then and we probably have more new members than originals, so many of us, I guess could be classed as performance virgins!! Needless to say, we are rehearsing hard but there is still a little trepidation within the camp, so we are asking, nay, begging the good burghers of Hutton Cranswick to come along, support us and hopefully, even join in and give us some much needed volume boost!

There will be a little community singing just before the lighting of the beacon so there is a fantastic opportunity for you to see what it's like singing in a group without the spotlight being on you. I understand you will find songsheets elsewhere in the Bulletin, so maybe you could even get a little practice in!

It promises to be a great event with a fantastic array of activities, entertainment and just general jollity making! There will be the bar and a BBQ, so plenty of refreshments to keep you going and of course, who would want to miss the opportunity of performing with your local choir.

So please, come along and support the day and be gentle with us !

If you do have a sing and realise how much fun it can be, then maybe you may be tempted to come along and join us on a Monday evening from 7.30-9.00 pm at the SRA. Contact Fiona on 07984 657071 for more details.

May 10th 2022

What an evening. We should have had a talk entitled Burlesque, the competition for the best decorated bra was allied to that, but our speaker was unable to be there. However the competition went ahead with some of the most decorative bras. We had feathers, rabbits, beads, sequins, ribbons and bows galore, all very colourful. The competition was won by Lyn Neill, 2nd Jennifer Brown, 3rd Lyn Morris. On a slightly more serious level, for the benefit of newer members, Kate Ollett explained ACWW and our pennies for friendship jar.

Val Thompson reported on the village Jubilee celebrations. We are to meet at the school on 5th June at 11am, dressed in our 50s finery, or whatever we have. To be followed by a picnic on the Green.

We will be holding a tombola on the Green at the Village Show on July 23rd and a fund raising jumble sale in the WI Hall on Saturday 17th September at 9 am.

Lovely refreshments were provided by Liz Megginson and Ruth Pickles.

Next meeting June 14th will be a Gin Tasting Evening. We are asked to dress up for the evening, long frocks, tiaras, jewellery as much bling as you like. The competition will be a brooch.

Could this be You?

Have you ever:-

- wondered how your favourite magazine gets put together?
- wondered what it would be like to have a hand in publishing something?
- had the urge to do a little research and write up your findings?
- looked at the computer you bought last year and felt as if you could do more than Surf the Net with it?
- felt those creative juices flowing but don't quite know what to do with them?

If the answer to any of the above is 'yes', then helping out with the editing and preparation of The Bulletin might be just the thing for you!!!

You don't have to know anything about publishing as The Bulletin team (who are a very friendly bunch) will show you the ropes and you never know – The Bulletin today, Vogue magazine tomorrow!

If you feel that you might be interested please get in touch. You don't have to make a commitment at this stage but come and talk to us and explore some of the many possibilities you might like to try.

To get in touch: email hutton.cranswick.bulletin.2020@gmail.com or have a chat with any member of The Bulletin team known to you.

9 ways that volunteering helps your mental health

Scouts
Hutton Cranswick

1 It's creative. Whether it's fashioning a bin bag into a makeshift waterproof or decorating cards for a local care home, you'll get those creative juices flowing.	2 It's great exercise. From playing 'Capture the flag' to trying out tennis, volunteering can help you to keep your fitness levels up each week.	3 You'll learn new skills. Whether it's science experiments, den building or fire building, there's a new adventure waiting. Picking up a new skill will give you a huge confidence boost too.
4 It gets you into the outdoors. Going on your first Scout camp or for a wet and windy walk can help give you a chance to feel refreshed and blow away any cobwebs.	5 You make friends. Meeting and socialising with new people from your local community gives you the chance to make lots of exciting friendships, and volunteering helps combat loneliness too.	6 It gives you pride. Spending time with young people, being proud of their little (and big!) wins and knowing that you contributed to it, leaves you feeling proud of yourself too.
7 It gives you a purpose. Knowing young people are excited to see you each week gives your life a new meaning and purpose. It's always a great feeling when you get given your first hand written card or piece of homemade artwork telling you how brilliant you are too!	8 It makes you a role model. Whether you're 16 or 60, you'll still be just as inspiring to all our members, and you're guaranteed to teach them something new.	9 Finally (and most importantly), it's fun. Volunteering, especially with Scouts, is sure to make you smile – especially when a Cub Scout wants to tell you their latest joke.
