Dear friends,
I love stories! It began when my mum would read stories to me & my 2 older brothers, at bedtime. Both my brothers were clever but I was a 'slow learner'. I couldn't read until I was at Junior School. My mum taught me! There was no stopping me after that. We were very fortunate because the local Library was only a 5 minute walk away. I had my child's ticket and I borrowed books every week. I've continued to love reading stories. I also enjoy listening to the stories of other people, as we all have a story to tell.

Guess what? This is my story of about the last 12 months of my life. It began last summer, 2021, when I received a letter in the post asking me to attend my 3-yearly screening at Castle Hill Hospital, in July. The efficiency was amazing – all done in under 10 minutes – and a friendly technician. So, so easy. Two weeks later I had to go back for a check & had 4 biopsies. Everything was explained by a friendly Doctor and after another 2 weeks I was given an appointment for my results. I had cancer. Everything was explained so clearly, with great care. By the time I went to see a Macmillan Nurse, I knew what was going to happen. The Macmillan Nurses are amazing; kind, caring, answering all questions & going over what the Doctor had explained. I even had my own Macmillan Nurse! Wow! My operation was on 13th Sept, just 7 weeks later!

Once I knew I had cancer, I put out a prayer request to a group which is about 80 strong, the Prayer Warriors, & the congregations of our 6 Churches & Chapel .

The Prayer Warriors began with Christians in Hutton Cranswick & Driffield, in 2009, & we now have Prayer Warriors to all points north, south, east & west.

I wasn't worried when I went in for my operation as I was in the hands of God, & I've felt very good in myself throughout my follow up treatment. I know I would have found it very difficult to cope without a very supportive husband & all the prayers.

That doesn't mean I didn't suffer from side effects & I'm still tired, have short term memory loss & suffering with some neuropathy. But I know I'm not in this alone.

I cannot praise the staff at the Breast Care Unit & Queens Centre too highly. Everyone is so cheerful & helpful from the greeters to the Consultants. The chemo nurses are rushed off their feet, attending to about 94 patients every day & yet they remain so positive & cheerful. We are very blessed to have Castle Hill Hospital on our doorsteps. I was amazed at how far some patients were travelling to receive the first-class treatment at Castle Hill.

Prayer strengthens, calms & fills with hope those who ask for help & anyone can ask for help.

This isn't the end of my story as I continue in faith.

If anyone would like to join the Prayer Warriors, please contact me.

Thank you.

Love
Gwyn.

The Story of Old Stinker and Tiddy Mun

Margaret told us the story of Old Stinker. If the water reservoir came into the marsh Old Stinker would stop the water from going around 20 feet up high. Thank you for telling us the story of Old Stinker.

Margaret also told us about the story of Tiddy Mun. If the reservoir went into the marsh Tiddy Mun would use his powers to save all the animals and plants that live in the marsh. Thank you for telling us the story of Tiddy Mun.

By Thomas

Story of the Magical Creatures

Long ago, at Tophill Low, two creatures joined Tiddy Mun and Old Stinker. Tiddy Mun is an elf like creature that protects the Marsh long and far. He stands on two logs and never moves because there's a river on top of a slope and it is believed that if the river floods, Tiddy Mun will save you.

Old Stinker is a gorilla looking fella and is grey or black. He stays in the wood and watches everyone who walks by. Old Stinkers job is to gobble people who walk off trail and drowned or get lost.

By Lana

The Old Stinker of the Marsh

Once upon a marsh was born a stinky child called Old Stinker. His family left him at the age of 5. He was left alone in the marsh as he was the only one there. As he grew up to the age of 13 he saw Tiddy Mun and envied him for so much attention. One day as he lurked in the bushes he heard him talking about old timers water death and how he did it! He went to the marsh he heard rustling in the bushes as it appeared it had a short snout, a long tail, a mouth of daggers, a body of poisonous spikes from head to toe and two beady eyes of heat vision. It slowly walked up to Old Stinker and said "I want Tiddy Mun!"

Dear Friends

Recently I found myself playing on the piano the song by Andrew Lloyd Webber, 'Love changes everything'. It is a great song. A catchy tune expressing a real important part of life. I guess love must be the basis for more song lyrics than anything else, which must be encouraging! An older song used to remind us that 'Love is a many splendid thing', and indeed it is diverse.

It's not a problem, but one of the difficulties with the word love is its wide range of meaning. It's a great word when we are talking about the delights of making love sexually. It's a great word when we are talking about the way that, for example, a mother may care unstintingly for her children, or somebody foregoes their own interests to enable someone else to experience a greater measure of fulfilment. But then you find yourself saying, 'I love cycling' or 'I love ice cream' and you are aware that this word love stretches a long way.

However back to Lloyd Webber and 'Love changes everything'. I believe it does, as long as you remember that it's not a spectator sport. There is no love without action, without personal involvement and in many situations the only thing love will change is you: your awareness, your understanding, your outlook. We might have hoped that love would reset the stage, take away the bits we don't like; I'm afraid not. Love keeps on saying you are responsible, you count, you make a difference. I hope some of these words come to you from people who love you. They are words that clearly come to us from God in a startlingly unconditional way.

Maybe this extract from a book compiled by Anthony de Mello will help you reflect on love:

*I was a neurotic for years.
I was anxious and depressed and selfish.*

Everyone kept telling me to change.

I resented them, and I agreed with them, and I wanted to change, but simply couldn't, no matter how hard I tried.

What hurt the most was that, like others, my best friend kept insisting that I change.

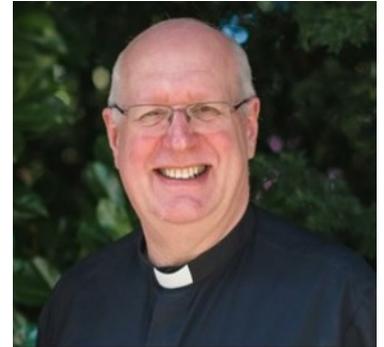

So, I felt powerless and trapped.

Then one day he said to me, 'Don't change. I love you just as you are.'

Those words were music to my ears. 'Don't change, don't change, don't change...I love you just as you are'.

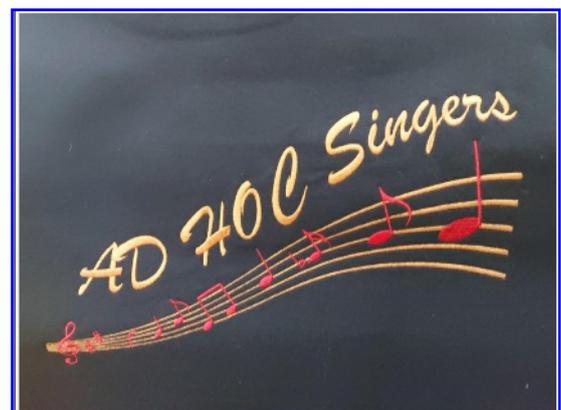

I relaxed. I came alive, and suddenly I changed.

Now I know that I couldn't change until I found someone who would love me whether I changed or not.

Lots and lots of love!

Any spend under S137 had to be contained within the Council's existing budget.

The expenditure (£14,700.00) was within the Limit of Expenditure (£15,583.73) for S137 spend in 2021-22.

The group was to participate in the next Craft and Produce Market at Foreman's Garage on the 28th May, 2022 with plants, hanging baskets, wall racks and pots for sale. Promises of assistance from Community Rail had still to be fulfilled. However, the group continued to work hard and made some improvements at the Station.

(b) SRA – Cllr Wilkinson reported the redesign of the new build was still to be finalised. There was a full programme of events to celebrate the Queens Platinum Jubilee, any more volunteers to help out would be welcomed. Arrangements were well advanced for the 10k charity run in July and the Classic Car event in August.

27th May - Tea party for school children at Foreman's garage, where the Chairman will present year groups with the Jubilee keep-sake commemorative mugs. Of the 500 mugs, around 200 would be given to children up to the age of 11 with the remainder for sale.

Cllr Teare circulated to Councillors, an example of the commemorative mug and also a pin badge, a key fob key ring and a swivel key ring, all depicting the Queens Jubilee logo.

28th May - Jubilee Craft and Produce Market at Foreman's Garage.

2nd to 5th June - Memorabilia exhibition at St Peter's Church.

22/137 Garden Allotments – There remained one vacant plot. Some allotment holders had been reminded to tidy up their plot. Three redundant tractor tyres had been donated to the school. There was still a problem with rats. An area used as a compost heap was to be evened out. Cllr Poolford proposed that an additional pest control contract be put in place with East Riding of Yorkshire Council at an estimated cost of £225.00. The proposal was seconded by Cllr Swan and unanimously agreed.

Guides

A big thank you to all those splat the ratters who supported our stall at the SRA BBQ and Beacon Bonfire. We raised £84.50 for 1st Hutton Cranswick Guide Unit.

We had a great time on the Jubilee parade in our 1980's costumes although it turned a little damp we kept smiling. Thank you to everyone who came out to support us.

We are a small, friendly unit with spaces available for girls aged 10-14 to join. Contact Emma Skipp for more information on 01377 270187.

What a wonderful day of celebration on the Thursday of the Queen's Jubilee Weekend at the SRA. It was brilliant to see so many people enjoying themselves and supporting so many of the activities and local causes. I think everyone was taken aback by how many people attended and it was great to see.

As a local Community Choir, we were delighted to be invited to take part and it was somewhat daunting to look out at the sea of faces waiting expectantly for us to begin. However, once we had launched into our opening number, 'Amazing Grace', the nerves disappeared and we thoroughly enjoyed our evening. I gather the sound quality wasn't brilliant and people sitting further back were struggling to hear everything clearly, so apologies for that (I did wonder why so many people were moving away – I thought we were too loud!).

Anyway, many thanks to you all for your support - particularly when we were joined on stage by a goodly number of the audience for the end of evening Jubilee singalong. I reckon there were quite a few voices there that would be more than welcome to come and join us on a more permanent basis! However, one of the best parts about the evening was being able to relax, sing along with Chris Lewis, who provided some excellent entertainment and to simply enjoy the whole experience. It was just a totally fun day. So many, many thanks to everyone who was involved in organising the event and helping out on the day. With a bit of luck, our next event, the Hutton Cranswick Village Show will be equally enjoyable. As we move through the year, we are receiving more and more bookings and are very much looking forward to giving it our best shot and hopefully inspiring others to sing, whether with us or with one of the many other choirs in the area. It really is good fun you know and seriously good for your health and well being.

If you do fancy having a go, give Fiona a call or text on 07984 657071, and join us on a Monday evening at the SRA in Hutton from 7.30 till 9.00pm. We would be delighted to welcome you.

In harmony

HUTTON CRANSWICK
 WI REPORT JUNE 14TH
 2022.

Gwynneth welcomed members and visitors to the meeting celebrating the Queen's Jubilee and our 75 years as a WI. To celebrate we had an evening of gin tasting. Six different gins were tried, courtesy of Lucy and co. from the Old Star with an assortment of mixers and nibbles to soak up the alcohol. A lovely evening was had even by the teetotalers among us.

The serious side of the evening involved fund raising ideas. We are to have a tombola stall at the village show on 23rd July, a strawberry tea in the hall on 20th August and a Jumble sale in the hall on 17th September at 9am.

The competition, a brooch, was won by Lesley. Next months competition is a Jubilee photograph. Tea ladies for July will be Lyn and Lesley.

We had a day where young people and their families could come and have a go on the climbing wall at our county site, Raywell Park. Many put aside their fears and had a go and reached the top.

During our normal meetings we've learnt about disabilities with special guests coming in, Rich Willis talking about his life, competitions, and medals and Lottie the guide dog with her trainer Richard, where we learned how she is trained and what a vital role she will play.

Judging date – Tuesday 5th July 2022

The Yorkshire in Bloom judges will be arriving at 1.00 pm on Tuesday 5th July to be given a tour of the village. They will be assessing us against criteria set by the Royal Horticultural Society for this competition. The visit should be completed in two hours.

The In Bloom team is looking forward to highlighting the changes that have been made to containers and ground beds in the village since the last visit by the judges.

Plant sales

Our plant sales have proved popular. We held another sale at the Craft and Produce Market in May with the plants left over from the sale at the Bowls Club in April and raised £81. All the plants we had have now either been sold or planted out in various locations in the village. Thanks to all of you who visited us at the sales and bought and donated plants.

This is a review for a game called Star Wars Battlefront 2; released on PS4, Xbox One and Steam on 17th November 2017, created by game company EA DICE. This game is ages 16+ due to sustained depictions of strong violence towards human characters. SWBF2 is both an FPS (first-person shooter) and TPS (third-person shooter). The game's story is interesting with a few glitches here and there (sometimes funny ones) but the multiplayer is incredible! The story's protagonist is an imperial agent called Iden Versio, part of a special operations group called Inferno Squad. They are part of the empire when the second Death Star is destroyed and try to get revenge on the rebels using a secret project.

The graphics of SWBF2 are good considering that it's a current-gen game but don't expect anything like Battlefield 1's graphics (they're pretty awesome). The lighting and shadowing is (almost) perfect on every map. Sound effects are very cinematic when playing large-scale modes such as Supremacy and Galactic Assault. Lightsaber effects are alright but it is a shame though that you can't sabre lock with other players like you could in the previous game. I love that every time you play as a hero or villain their theme music is on in the background when you load in for the first 10 seconds after spawning. The game's HUD (Heads-Up Display) is quite neat and you can customize it in the settings menu, you can activate colourblind mode, change the crosshair colour, turn certain features on and off etc.

In multiplayer, you have the choice of playing across all three eras from the Skywalker saga and all six factions including the Republic and the Empire. There are 4 normal classes of soldier (Assault, Heavy, Officer and Specialist) and 3 special classes (Enforcer, Aerial and Infiltrator). You can also play as some of the most iconic Star Wars characters such as Darth Vader, Obi Wan Kenobi and Kylo Ren. There are different vehicles you can drive on certain maps and modes. There are loads of different appearances you can acquire for your soldiers and heroes using the in-game currency called credits or crystals. Furthermore, you can get different emotes and victory stances as well.

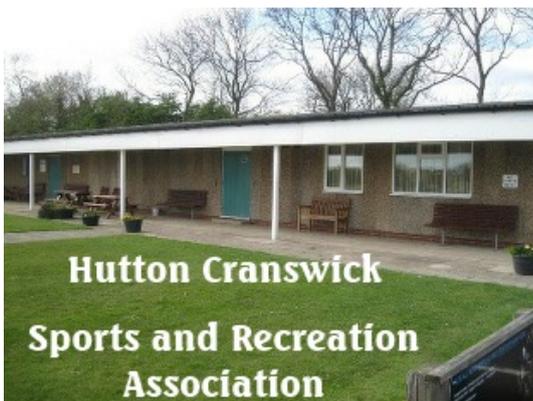

The player will be able to upgrade different abilities for the character classes and modify several weapons unique to that category of soldier. The Assault class use blaster rifles, Heavys use LMGs, Officers use pistols and Specialists use snipers. The reinforcement class weapons however can't be modified but they can still have upgraded abilities like increased health or increased equipment duration. The maps in SWBF2 can be pretty large if playing a mode consisting of up to 40 players and can sometimes last 30 minutes or more if both teams are equally skilled and hold the objectives.

Overall I recommend this game to anyone who loves Star Wars and is experienced with other shooters such as EA's Battlefield series or Activision's Call of Duty franchise. I rate this game 8/10 due to stunning graphics, interesting campaign and (in my opinion) one of the greatest multiplayer games on PS4, along with Modern Warfare. The previous game, SWBF 2015 is pretty good but doesn't have a campaign and is only based on the Galactic Civil War era (Rebels vs Empire). SWBF2 might be the best looking Star Wars game ever made, recreating most of the largest scale battle scenes of the franchise.
